HOW TO BE HAPPY.
"My kingdom and my daughter's hand are yours," the story started. They married—and lived happily—That is, when they had parted.

HOLDING MEN

Arrested As Suspicious Characters—
Cincinnati Chief of Police Says
That They May Be Wanted
In That City.

Yesterday afternoon Chief of Police Mackey received word from Chief of Police Copeland of Cincinnati advising him to hold the three men arrested here Friday night as suspicious characters by Detective Herbie and Officer Tolle. The chief said that these may be the same men that are wanted in Cincinnati for entering a house occupied by an old man and his daughter in one of the suburbs of Cincinnati. The old gentleman was shot in the leg, but the marauders were frightened and left without stealing anything.

Word will be received from Chief Copeland by noon today telling whether or not these men are the same ones wanted in Cincinnati.

TRENT-HOFFMAN.

Rev. Howard Edgar Trent and Miss Katherine Agnes Hoffman were united in marriage on December 30, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. T. Benson, in Mt. Sterling, Ky., the Rev. C. B. Plummer, formerly minister of the Greenup M. E. church, officiating.—Greenup Republican.

Rev. Trent is well known in this city, having been the pianist at the revival meeting held at the Third Street M. E. church, this city, last winter. He is also well and favorably known by those that attend Ruggles Campmeeting.

Impatience is the sign manual of inefficiency.

MIGHTY CONFLICT

Waged In Graves Alley Last Night By Two Colored Damsels—Battle Declared a Draw By Spectators.

An impromptu ten-round, no-decision bout at catchweights for the championship of Graves alley was staged last night between two negro girls that provided entertainment and excitement for a small but enthusiastic audience, many of them residents of the vicinity who had vantage points from windows.

The first rounds of the encounter introduced an assortment of forcible expletives and uncomplimentary terms, vocabularies that exhausted the whole gamut of forcible English, gradually increasing in fervor and eloquence. Invitations of a highly sulphurous nature blurred the air during the middle rounds. Finally, however, words failed, and yielding to the cries for action by the spectators, the combatants clinched and engaged in an old-fashioned, knock down, roll-and-tumble fist fight, during which the best efforts of our street cleaning department were put to shame. The street in the immediate vicinity was cleaned thoroughly, most of the mud and water clinging to the clothes of the principals as they rolled and tumbled.

The engagement was precipitated by a remark dropped by a white man who had been celebrating "closing night."

Evidences of the same nature were disclosed by the fighters.

BEN MIDDLEMAN'S EXAMINING TRIAL POSTPONED.

The examining trial of Ben Middleman for the killing of George Hendrickson in this city last week was brought up before County Judge W. H. Rice yesterday, but as the Commonwealth desired further time to get several more witnesses, the case was postponed until Saturday.

H. G. Pedersen, an expert wall decorator, will be at our store Wednesday. Don't use wall paper; use oil colors, that can be washed. Call and see him. J. JAS. WOOD & SON.

SALOONS CLOSED

Last Night at 11 O'clock and Will Reopen
No More Unless Court of Appeals
Decides To the Contrary

Last night at 11 o'clock all the Maysville saloons and retail liquor houses, almost a score in number, closed up shop and will reopen no more unless the Court of Appeals says that the local option law is invalid or unconstitutional.

As soon as the farmers heard the sorrowful news quite a few "made hay while the sun shined," and hustling into Maysville, laid in a bountiful supply to tide them over for awhile at least. It was not an uncommon sight during the day and up until 11 o'clock last night to see quite a few people with little cylindrical packages under their arms, said packages containing a quart or more of booze.

Last night the grand rush was made by the people living in the city and 'tis said several of the saloons sold completely out even before 11 o'clock. When such a calamity took place a rush was made to the nearest thirst quenching parlor.

There are quite a few of the saloons and whisky houses, however, that still have large stocks and should the Court of Appeals decide in favor of the drys they will have to dispose of their stock elsewhere.

Notwithstanding the fact that there was a great deal of drinking, there was not near so much disorder as would have been thought or was expected. About the only disorder was when a few of the drinkers got so happy that they had to burst forth into melodious song. There can be no doubt, however, that the morning after finds many who do not care if it had gone out sooner—that is, those who have the dark brown taste and the bursting head.

GOOD MEETING

Prof. Caplinger Talks To Forest Avenue
P. T. A.—Work Now Centered
Upon Establishing Adequate School Library.

To a very enthusiastic audience at the Forest Avenue Parent-Teacher Association Friday afternoon Prof. Caplinger most ably and eloquently set forth the needs of this organization and outlined work that concerted and steadfast action of the members might be able to accomplish with glowing results. The opportunities are so manifold and far-reaching that they preclude limitation.

It is, indeed, regrettable that we have not space to publish in full his remarks.

At our initial meeting, in planning our year's work, with one accord we moved to work for the equipment of a suitable and adequate school library.

A committee, Prof. Barnes, Prof. Berry and Miss Hattie Grey, was appointed to tabulate a list of reference books needful in the work of the grades. Being also decided to accept donations of those that conform to the list prescribed. There is at present quite a number of books in the library which are untruly unsuited to the tenor of references required, and it is further proposed to eliminate these superfluous copies as we add these new ones.

Several volumes have been pledged at previous meetings, announcements of which will be published when the list is submitted, that no duplicates may be presented.

Friday evening of this week at 7 o'clock there will be another "spellin' bee" at this building upon the urgent request of some of the younger folks, at which more of our delightful home made candy will be on sale. We trust that our supply this time will at least equal the demand, as at our preceding entertainment many were disappointed when our stock was exhausted.

The suggestion of a "Valentine party" was quite favorably received and we shall forthwith proceed to make it one of the most enjoyable affairs yet—of course, with the public's co-operation of which we at once felt assured.

MRS. FANNY DAVIS,
Chairman Pub. Com.

OLD OFFENDER FINED.

Yesterday in Police Court Bess Haley, colored, was fined $6.50 on a drunk charge. Bess is always in trouble but she may have a hard time getting the booze when she gets out this time.

Lafe Snedegar, for being drunk and disorderly, was dismissed.

Mr. Thomas A. Davis is ill with the grip at his home in West Second street. Mr. Davis has not been up for several weeks.

Mr. George Schatzmann of Lexington street, who suffered a stroke of paralysis several weeks ago, remains about the same.

MRS. MARY TAMME

Passed Away At Portsmouth—Survived
By Thirteen Children—Remains
Brought Here For Burial.

The remains of Mrs. Mary Tamme, the widow of the late Edward Tamme, arrived Monday morning from Portsmouth, O., on the early C. & O. train, and were taken direct to St. Patrick church, where the services were held. She is survived by 13 children: Mrs. Lucy Lauder, Miss Sarah Tamme, Mrs. Mary Lauder, Mrs. Madeline Pfeffer, Mrs. Traeie Stamm, Mrs. Belle Moreland, Mrs. Rose Pfeffer, Mrs. Francis Pfeffer, Dan Tamme, Will Tamme, Frank Tamme, Edward Tamme and Theodore Tamme. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Madeline Ring, and six brothers, Messrs Frank, Adam, John, Peter, Joseph and Correy Eppensteiner.

Burial in the Washington Catholic cemetery.

All those attending the funeral were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eppensteiner of Forest avenue.

MISS MARGARET COOK

Sank To Rest Last Night At the Home of Her Sister, Mrs. R. M.
Stephens.

Miss Margaret Cook died at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. M. Stephens, Monday night at 11 o'clock, after a long illness of paralysis, aged 76 years.

She was a good Christian woman and bore her illness patiently and was a devoted member of the Third Street M. E. church.

One brother, H. L. Cook, and one sister, Mrs. R. M. Stephens, both of this city, survive her.

Funeral Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence on Commerce street. Interment in the family lot in the Maysville cemetery.

TYPHOID CAUSES THREE DEATHS IN MONTGOMERY.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., January 10.—Typhoid fever claimed three victims here in 36 hours—Curtis Jett and Leonard Myers, both farmers, and Mrs. Stella B. Carter.

CARTOONIST

On Thursday night, January 14, Ros Crane, sculptor, humorist and cartoonist, will present what is said to be "the best entertainment I have ever seen." He is a man of varied powers, offering a rare combination of art and humor. In a space of 20 minutes he produces six or eight great heads in clay, national types as well as laughable creations. One feature is a pious burlesque, in which the artists slaps a touch of red into his program. We are expecting a large attendance, so see Williams for reserved seats before too late.

VOTE ON WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE TODAY.

Washington, January 12.—The fight for woman's suffrage, which has gained impetus during the last five years, will be staged for the first time on the floor of the House of Representatives today, when a vote will be taken on the constitutional amendment making woman's suffrage national-wide.

SUIT FOR $3,000

Filed in the Mason Circuit Court Yesterday By Rev. J. E. Reed Against the Hord Construction Co.

Yesterday in the Mason Circuit Court Rev. J. E. Reed filed suit against the Hord Construction Company for damages in the sum of $3,000 for injuries to his face, mouth and arms received while working for said company on or about November 23, 1914. The plaintiff asserts in his petition that the accident occurred while he was working for the Hord Construction Company at New Richmond, O., and that it was through their negligence in not having a sufficient number of men working that he was injured.

Rev. Reed filed the petition through his attorneys, J. W. Simpson and F. P. O'Donnell.

That Archbishop John Ireland of St. Paul, Minn., will be created a cardinal at the next Consistory is the substance of a report now in circulation at the Vatican. Archbishop Ireland has for years been one of the most powerful potentates of the Roman Catholic church in America. Archbishop Ireland is now 77 years old. He was born in Sallie Church Berryman, mother of C. Ireland and was taken to St. Paul by K. Berryman, the Washington cartoonist, his parents while he was still a young boy. He was named archbishop in 1888. county, aged 81 years.

OWSLEY IS THERE WITH THE HOT AIR.

Owsley Stanley has tossed his headgear into the gubernatorial ring. And now, whatever may have been said of the lack of interest in recent campaigns, we may be sure that this one will be a hum-dinger. Owsley is there with the pyrotechnics when it comes to whooping it up on the stump. Like the war horse we are told about in the Book of Job, "He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength; he saith among the trumpets, Ha, Ha! and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunders of the captains and the shouting."

BLUE SKY FEES TOO HIGH.

Reduction of the fees charged for listing stocks under the Ohio blue sky department is to be made if the plans of those in charge of the administration of the law are approved by the General Assembly. The schedules imposed at the time of the passage of the act are far too high, and official statements show that they may be reduced nearly 50 per cent. The present fees work actual hardship upon many worthy enterprises, and unless reduced, will ten very strongly to diminish new enterprise in the state.

LET GARDNER AND HOBSON RAISE THE MONEY.

Representative Gardner expresses his willingness to spend $700,000,000 to prepare the country for war, but it will not come out of his pocket. That would be only a drop in the bucket but would be easy to have and to spend if the rotten old pork barrel should fall to pieces.

MURDERERS APLENTY.

Governor Cole Blease of South Carolina has pardoned more than 1,600 convicts, including a generous percentage of murderers. But this number, after all, is less than 4 per cent of his total vote in 1912.—New York World.

THE HORRORS OF WAR.

The largest order for cartridges ever received by a Vermont concern has come to the Robin Hood Ammunition Company, for $2,500,000 worth of cartridges. Their ultimate destination is not definitely known.

GOOD FOR COLORADO.

For the first time in the history of the state of Colorado, agricultural output exceeded $100,000,000 last year. This was an increase of $15,000,000 over 1913.

TOO RADICAL.

A western dining car company has substituted waitresses for waiters, but the suggestion that real food be served is rejected as too radical.—New York Sun.

Italy has shown lots of sense in keeping out of the war. If Germany had said to Austria when Austria proposed to make war on Serbia that she would not back her up, Austria would not have dared to attack Serbia. But Germany, evidently, wanted the war and she has it.

Mrs. Grace Dodge of New York City by her will left $200,000 to public and religious institutions. Among other bequests left $25,000 to the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions and the same amount to the Board of Home Missions.

The value of all elemental and high school property in Ohio on January 1 was $93,721,939. The number of school buildings was 12,630. Public school teachers numbered 30,358 and school children 895,167.

PERSONS OF CONSTITUTIONAL PSYCHOPATHIC INFERIORITY TO BE EXCLUDED FROM THE UNITED STATES.

The House, by a vote of 252 to 75, defeated the Senate amendment to the immigration bill providing for the exclusion from this country of all immigrants of the African or black race.

Representative Aswell's motion to concur in the Senate amendment was overwhelmingly voted down after a brief debate.

The Senate amendment to exclude Ethiopians and to exempt Belgian farmer-immigrants from the literacy test provision caused a protracted debate after which the House accepted the Senate amendment excluding from the United States "persons of constitutional psychopathic inferiority."

When this amendment was under discussion Representative O'Shaghnessy of Rhode Island, asked Speaker Clark:

"What does this mean?"

"The chair is as much in doubt about that as anybody else," responded Speaker Clark.

The House dictionary was produced and an extended definition of the term was read. Representative Brown of New York objected to the definition, saying that the true definition was as follows:

"This term can be defined with approximate correctness as a congenial defect in the emotional or volitional field of mental activity which results in inability to make proper adjustments to the environment."

"If I had a lot of money, I'd put every cent of it in your American industrial shares," said a great British financier who was in New York borrowing money for the English.

THE INDIAN'S MISTAKE.

Probably the worst mistake poor Lo ever made was in failing to pass an alien land bill.—Washington Post.

The exports of silver from the United States in the ten months ending with October, amounted in value to only $42,452,890 against $53,896,586, the corresponding period of 1913; while the imports were only $20,340,603 against $29,968,758. Thus the exports have exceeded the imports thus far this year $22,112, 287 against $23,927,828, the corresponding period of 1913.—The Economist.

New England firms have booked orders from the French and English governments for 1,000,000 pairs of heavy wool socks and 500,000 sweater coats and $2,000,000 worth of shoes.

Seven thousand horses, costing $275,000, are going to the allied armies from Spring Lake, N. J., where they are being bought up throughout the south.

Two hundred thousand uniforms and 200,000 overcoats have been ordered from two New York houses. Destination is not generally known.

Since December 1, 1914, 16,000 operatives in the Manchester, N. H., textile mills have been working full time.

Sister's Marksmanship.

"What is your sister doing, Charlie?" asked the young man caller.

"She's out in the orchard throwing sticks up a tree to knock down some apples," said Charlie.

"But apples aren't ripe, are they?"

"No," said Charlie, "but they will be by the time she knocks one down."—New York Times.

CRYING FOR HELP

Lots of It in Maysville But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys often cry for help. Not another organ in the whole body more delicately constructed. Not one more important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the frequent indications of kidney trouble. It is often the kidney's cry for help. Heed it.

Read what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for overworked kidneys. Read what Doan's have done for Maysville people.

Lang Stevens, Maysville, Ky., says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had backache, which extended into my kidneys. The kidney action was irregular. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my family, so I gave them a trial. They helped me greatly."

Mr. Stevens is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Stevens had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. CHARTER ELECTION CALLED OFF.

Fort Worth, Tex., January 12.—The special election to have been held in Fort Worth today to vote on the adoption of a new city charter has been called off. The order for the special election was given some months ago in response to a petition filed by the Young Men's Business League. The city manager form of government was desired. Steps will be taken now to obtain a city manager without holding a charter election.

BIG POULTRY SHOW OPENS IN BOSTON.

Boston, Mass., January 12.—One of the biggest poultry shows ever held in America opened in Mechanics' Building today and will continue through the remainder of the week. The show is given under the auspices of the Boston Poultry Show Association. The most notable feature of the exhibition is the large display of waterfowl, comprising more than 1,000 ducks and geese.

DRY ISSUE IN ALABAMA.

Montgomery, Ala., January 12.—State-wide prohibition apparently is the big question confronting the Alabama Legislature which convened today. The sentiment of many of the members appears to be in favor of disposing of this issue before taking up other important matters on the legislative program. Leaders of the dries express confidence in their ability to put a state-wide measure through both Houses.

WOMAN FACES MURDER TRIAL.

Sullivan, Ind., January 12.—The case of Mrs. Myrtle Gibbons, accused of murder in the first degree, was called in court here today for trial. Mrs. Gibbons is accused of having shot and killed Elroy B. Smith, the proprietor of a theater in Terre Haute. The tragedy occurred last July and is said to have resulted from the severance of friendly relations that had existed between the two.

GOVERNOR CARLSON IN OFFICE.

Denver, Col., January 12.—George A. Carlson, Republican, was inaugurated Governor of Colorado today, succeeding E. M. Ammons, Democrat. The ceremonies were held in the assembly chamber of the capitol, which was thronged with friends of the new Governor from all over the state.

And I don't know where I can raise baol."

Ouch!
"How did Jones come to lose his money?" asked the Old Fogey.
"It was spirited away," replied the Grouch.
"What do you mean?" asked the Old Fogey.
"He spent it on booze," replied the Grouch.

That Helps Some.
"Be like the rooster, son, I beg,"
Said wise old Mr. Loost;
"And if you can not lay an egg,
You can stand 'round and boost."

Explained.
"I don't understand this picture, Mr. Dauber," said Mr. Highbrow.
"There is nothing to it but a man wearing a blue cap, and you have named the picture 'Friendless.' Who is the man, and why is the picture named 'Friendless?'"
"That," replied the artist, "represents an umpire after the home team has lost a close game."

More Appropriate.
"Some day I'll get a harp," said Dix.
"And join the Heavenly choir;"
But when he died and crossed the Styx
They handed him a lyre.

I am longing for the country, far from gilded, mirrored bars,

WESTERN ASSOCIATION MEETING.

Fort Smith, Ark., January 12.—Several officials and club owners of the Western Association of Baseball Clubs have put in appearance here in anticipation of the meeting of the Association tomorrow. At this meeting it is expected the circuit will be finally arranged and other preparations completed for the coming season. Present indications point to an eight-club circuit, comprising McAlester, Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Muskogee and Bartlesville, Okla.; Fort Smith, Ark., and Paris and Denison, Texas.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Louisville, Ky.—"I think if more suffering women would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound they would enjoy better health. I suffered from a female trouble, and the doctors decided I had a tumorous growth and would have to be operated upon, but I refused as I do not believe in operations. I had fainting spells, bloated, and could hardly stand the pain in my left side. My husband insisted that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful I did, for I am now a well woman. I sleep better, do all my housework and take long walks. I never fail to praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my good health."—Mrs. J. M. RESCH, 1900 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (Confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Poor Man.

First thing a fellow knows at morn
He's born;
Then, say, at 10 o'clock, the next,
He's vexed
By readin', ritin', 'rithmetic,
Till sick.
At noon he has to go to work,
Or shirk.
Then, 'round 'bout 2, he takes
'For life'
A wife.
From 2 'till time to bring in lights
He fights.
And struggles with his fellow-men,
And then
He sits around a while and thinks,
And blinks,
And when at last it's time for bed
He's dead.

A DAILY LESSON IN HISTORY

One Hundred Years Ago Today.
1815—A national fast was observed throughout the United States.

Seventy-five Years Ago Today.
1840—The leaders of the new Whig party were at work on plans for the "Log Cabin" and "Hard Cider" campaign in the interest of William Henry Harrison, in which the modern methods of conducting a Presidential campaign were first introduced.

Fifty Years Ago Today.
1865—Members of the Prussian chamber of deputies assembled in Berlin for the opening of their session, which was to be made memorable by the firm refusal of the deputies to pass the measures demanded by the government for a reorganization of the army and an increase in the fleet.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.
1890—Mrs. Louisa Fitz-George, wife of the Duke of Cambridge (first cousin of Queen Victoria), died in London. Born in Ireland in 1816.

BUYS NICE LITTLE FARM.

Mrs. C. C. Degman sold 76 acres of hill land to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sweet, consideration private. Mrs. Sweet was formerly Miss Christine Hotze, daughter of the late Mr. Louis Hotze of the East End.

FIFTY YEARS AGO IN CINCINNATI.

(Commercial Tribune)

Bayard Taylor, the famous traveler and writer, will lecture at Mozart Hall on the evening of January 17, taking as his subject, "Ourselves and Our Relations."

Captain Hagerty, Lieutenant Chambers and a number of soldiers who participated in the raid on Saltville returned to Covington yesterday, all being badly frostbitten. They report terrible hardships due to cold weather on the return trip.

The theaters tonight: Pike's, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson, Woods, Maggie Mitchell in "Crockett," Mozart Hall, German Opera Company in "La Dame Blanche."

Business was light on the landing yesterday until late, when ten packets arrived with big trips. There were four departures.

Ed. Eddy, the tragedian, arrived from New Orleans yesterday, bringing the body of Mrs. Eddy, who died there some time since. The couple resided here for some years and were most popular.

The New York gold market was heavy yesterday, closing at $226 3/4. Locally the grain market was quiet, wheat closing at $2.27, corn $1.15 and oats at 86c.

MEETING OF GRAND CIRCUIT STEWARDS.

Detroit, Mich., January 12.—The Grand Circuit will be on deck and ready for business when the gong sounds for the beginning of the trotting season of 1915. This was the sentiment expressed by the stewards of the big line when they assembled here this morning for their annual session. The dropping of Fort Erie will necessitate a change in the circuit and further changes may be caused by the possible withdrawal of Pittsburg or Hartford. The other links of the circuit will remain intact and half a dozen applications have been received from cities desiring to fill any vacancies in the line.

Paul R. Rosengarten was arrested at Waterbury, Conn., on a federal warrant charging counterfeiting.

SOME BILLY SUNDAY GRAMS.

You need a revel in when there's a want of brotherly love in the church. When there's dissension, lies, factions, evil-speaking, You're away from God when you're grumbling and growling about somebody. There's something wrong with you.

A lot of you never open your Bible except when a baby's born and you want to keep the family record straight. It's so big it would take a Sandoz to handle it.

I'll bet my hat against a plugged counterfeit cent that thousands of you here haven't read your Bible today.

Your sins were committed one by one, so confess them one by one. Don't job 'em.

A revival is needed when the wicked triumph over the church. Let the Lord do it the way he wants to. Don't butt into God.

If you all agreed with me, then I'd know I was wrong.

KENTUCKY PRESS NOTES.

Taxes Must Come High.
(Middlesboro Pinnacle News.)
It costs more to run the city of Middlesboro than it does Bell county. Bell county's bonded indebtedness is less than $20,000; Middlesboro's is more than $200,000.

Productive Acre.
(Lancaster Record.)
Sanders Bros., of Coy, in this county, raised on one acre of measured land, last year 2,800 pounds of tobacco. This tobacco was set July 16 last and was marketed here to C. A. Speith & Company for 9 cents a pound, thus realizing from the single acre $252.

A Killing a Week.
(Richmond Pantagraph.)
Another man killed at Burnside. While we were publishing a paper at Mt. Vernon, a Burnside citizen wanted to furnish correspondence, but we didn't think it worth while. "Oh," he said, "there will always be something sensational; I will guarantee a killing every week."

The Solo Inappropriate.
(Henderson Journal.)
"If I had not seen it with my own eyes in the December 5 Henderson (Ky.) Daily Journal I would not have believed it! But there, among the church notices, I read:

"First Baptist—Afternoon service at 3 o'clock, especially for old people; subject, 'Mountains On the Road To Hell.' Solo, 'I Want To Go There,' Church."

We are indebted to Mr. B. G. Witt for the above clipping. Mr. Witt found the clipping in the New York Evening Post.

Labor Problem On the Farm.
(Midway Clipper.)
A prominent farmer of this community told us, recently, that he had attended many farmers' meetings; had heard many experts tell the farmers how to raise corn, wheat, hay, alfalfa, tobacco, etc.; how to manage their pigs and calves and lambs—in fact how to dispose of nearly every question that confronts the farmer, except what is now the most important and serious one—the labor question. Said he: "If some of these experts, who are lecturing the farmers on various subjects from the pig pen to the parlor, will show me where to find them and how to keep competent hands on my farm the year 'round, and how to keep a cook in my kitchen all the time, I can work out my other problems with comparative ease."

BISHOP OF CUBA CONSECRATED.

New York, January 12.—With all the solemnity and ceremonial attached to the sacred office, the Rev. Hiram R. Hulise, archdeacon of Orange, was consecrated as Episcopal missionary bishop of Cuba in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, this morning in the presence of a large congregation of clergy and laity. The service was the first of its kind in the new cathedral. Bishop Greer of this city officiated as consecrator, and was assisted by Bishop Lines of Newark and Bishop Knight.

The new bishop goes to Cuba to succeed Bishop Knight, who resigned to become vice chancellor of the University of the South.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING.

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death."

Adie's patched me up for awhile, but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving women's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Miss Casey's Report For December Shows Urgent Need of Money To Carry On Her Work—Forty-Two Cases of Tuberculosis.

Number of patient carried over from November, 51; number new patients, 35; number births, 1; total, 87.

Number patients discharged cured, 18; number patients discharged improved, 16; number patients discharged unimproved, 12; number patients deceased, 3; total, 49; remaining, 38.

Number sick calls, 121; number county school calls, 1; business calls, 16; metropolitan calls, 42; miscellaneous calls, 92; treated in office, 14; total, 286.

Number tuberculosis cases listed December 1, 36; number new tuberculosis cases, 6; total, 42.

Number discharged cured, 4; number discharged improved, 10; number discharged unimproved, 5; deceased, 2; total, 21.

Remaining positive cases, 21. Three patients were sent to the Almshouse. One was placed in the free ward for children at Hayswood Hospital. Nurse was provided for a patient one night. The last case of scarlet fever has been dismissed.

One friend contributed $25; another contributed $10, to be used to relieve distress among the poor, which simplified greatly the previous method of obtaining supplies. Three families were at once relieved of hunger; coal supplied to one family; shoes for four children, underclothing for one man and one child.

Mrs. E. R. Blaine kindly supplied two children and mother with clothing and one order for groceries.

Knights of Pythias contributed $10 to be used at Christmas. Groceries were purchased and 21 baskets filled and delivered on Christmas day.

The Traveling Men's Association supplied coal to five of our families and $1 worth of groceries to another.

Mayor Lee gave four suits of clothes and two extra coats and vests. All were given out except the extra coats and vests.

Mr. Richard Carr provided a toy and basket of fruit for 10 boys and 10 girls at Christmas and their little hearts were made happy.

Miss Florence Wilson contributed a basket of groceries and fruit for one family, and toys for the children.

Miss Gertrude M. Casey of Medina, N. Y., sent a box of toys, aprons, etc., for the children.

A gift of $5.50 as received Christmas eve to assist in carrying out the Christmas plan and all was received in the Christmas spirit and out of the 25 homes visited on Christmas day there were only three that showed any sign whatever of having had any Christmas.

All of the above gifts were voluntary on the part of the good people of Maysville. Thirteen dollars was solicited from private sources to give one of our little charges a nice burial. The shroud was made by friends and underwears and stockings furnished by others. The M. C. Coughlin Company furnished free ambulance service from the home to the hospital.

I wish to thank all for their assistance, and may they be blessed for the sacrifice. Respectfully submitted,

ANNA M. CASEY.

RANDOM THOUGHTS.

Some men get a reputation for moroseness because they think a great deal more than they talk.

It is the flexibility of language that makes some ideas seem new.

Sobriety is a virtue that has greater rewards than that which is virtue's own.

J. WESLEY LEE, Mayor.

OHIO'S FIFTIETH GOVERNOR INAUGURATED.

Columbus, O., January 11.—Frank B. Willis, Ohio's new Governor, told the throng of citizens, lawmakers and officials who gathered in the state house yard today to hear his inaugural address, that the executive branch of the state government will co-operate with, but not dominate the Legislature during his administration. He expressed the hope that the government, during the next two years, will effect "retrenchment in public expenses," that the Assembly will produce "as small a volume of legislation as is consistent with the public interests," and that party lines will not be drawn in the Legislature.

Decentralization and return to more democratic forms of government without sacrifice of efficiency was the keynote of his address, which contained about 3,000 words and required less than 15 minutes to deliver.

New Governor.

Governor Willis is: Forty-three years old. Six feet one and three-quarters inches tall. Weighs 250 pounds. Married and has a young lady daughter. Likes to walk and pitch horse-shoes (quoits). Has no motor car and will take his exercise afoot.

It is the rich grandfather who is suspected of being mentally incapable of properly managing his own affairs.

It is easy enough to name a boy "Reginald," but it is mighty hard to make it "take."

CHICKEN FIGHT RAID

Wild Scenes Followed—Men Tried To Get Through Window Two At a Time.

(Monday's Times-Star.)

A chicken fight being held on the Licking pike, near the Mittenmiller road house, back of Newport, Ky., early Sunday morning, was interrupted by County Patrolman Manwaring and Probation Officer John Meyers of Newport. It is estimated there were nearly 400 persons in a barn when the two officers walked in unobserved. When Manwaring and Meyers were recognized there was a scramble on the part of the spectators for first chance out of the windows, and in some instances two became wedged for a time in the window space while trying to get out. The officers recognized a number of the men they claim and warrants will be issued. During the raid the officers captured the gamecocks which were to have done the fighting.

A PALINDROME.

As an example of a palindrome, that is to say, a sentence which reads the same backward as forward, a Minneapoli man sends the following speech, which might have been spoken by Napoleon: "Able was I ere I saw Elba." This is a supreme example of the palindrome, for not only does the sentence read backward the same as forward, but the separate words read backwards as well as forward. This is not true of the famous "Madam, I'm Adam."—Springfield Republican.

Fine words fall where humble deeds are sufficient.
